February 17, 2026

This list contains many items that are close to sold out. I have tried to make note of small quantities in the "Notes" column when applicable. Most items still have at least 10 available in the size that is listed.

If you haven't already placed your spring order, this list will be helpful as sizes and prices are both listed. If you already received your acknowledgement for your spring order, please refer to this list for any possible substitutions on items that were marked N/A. We are available to help you with any questions you may have.
